

Opening thought question:

Has there ever been a time when you've asked the question, "How long, Lord?"

Read: Psalm 13

Spend some time this week meditating on Psalm 13. Turn it over in your mind, looking at it from different angles. Read it daily and pray for the Holy Spirit to reveal meaning and truth to you as you spend time with this psalm this week.

What theme(s) do you notice?

What progression do you notice over the course of these verses?

What single phrase encapsulates the main point of this entire chapter?

Opening thought question:

Has there ever been a time when you've asked the question, "How long, Lord?"

Read: Psalm 13

Spend some time this week meditating on Psalm 13. Turn it over in your mind, looking at it from different angles. Read it daily and pray for the Holy Spirit to reveal meaning and truth to you as you spend time with this psalm this week.

What theme(s) do you notice?

What progression do you notice over the course of these verses?

What single phrase encapsulates the main point of this entire chapter?

Is there anything that surprises you in the language of this psalm?

Is there anything that brings you comfort from this psalm?

Is there anything that brings you comfort from this psalm?

What does this passage tell us about God?

What does this passage tell us about God?

Is there anything the Holy Spirit is helping you understand more deeply, or nudging you to look at more closely?

Prayer:

Father, thank you for never leaving or forsaking us. Thank you for listening when we cry out to you with, "How much longer, Lord?" Help us to trust in your love that never fails, and to praise you in spite of our circumstances.

In the name of Jesus, amen.

Prayer:

Father, thank you for never leaving or forsaking us. Thank you for listening when we cry out to you with, "How much longer, Lord?" Help us to trust in your love that never fails, and to praise you in spite of our circumstances.

In the name of Jesus, amen.