

Opening thought question:

What experiences have you had with God that you can use as reminders of his faithfulness and enduring love?

Read: Psalm 136

Spend some time this week meditating on Psalm 136. Turn it over in your mind, looking at it from different angles. Read it daily and pray for the Holy Spirit to reveal meaning and truth to you as you spend time with this psalm this week.

What theme(s) do you notice?

Read this psalm in three different translations.

What words are used to describe God's love?

Look up and write out the dictionary definitions of "steadfast" and "faithful."

Opening thought question:

What experiences have you had with God that you can use as reminders of his faithfulness and enduring love?

Read: Psalm 136

Spend some time this week meditating on Psalm 136. Turn it over in your mind, looking at it from different angles. Read it daily and pray for the Holy Spirit to reveal meaning and truth to you as you spend time with this psalm this week.

What theme(s) do you notice?

Read this psalm in three different translations.

What words are used to describe God's love?

Look up and write out the dictionary definitions of "steadfast" and "faithful."

Is there anything that surprises you in this psalm?

Is there anything that brings you comfort from this psalm?

What does this passage tell us about God?

Is there anything the Holy Spirit is helping you understand more deeply, or nudging you to look at more closely?

Get a bigger picture:

Look up the different Old Testament events mentioned in this psalm, and read the stories of God's faithfulness.

Prayer:

Father, thank you for your perfect love that never fails. You are the creator and sustainer of all things. Thank you for being our protector, our guide, and our strength. In the name of Jesus, amen.

Is there anything that surprises you in this psalm?

Is there anything that brings you comfort from this psalm?

What does this passage tell us about God?

Is there anything the Holy Spirit is helping you understand more deeply, or nudging you to look at more closely?

Get a bigger picture:

Look up the different Old Testament events mentioned in this psalm, and read the stories of God's faithfulness.

Prayer:

Father, thank you for your perfect love that never fails. You are the creator and sustainer of all things. Thank you for being our protector, our guide, and our strength. In the name of Jesus, amen.