

WEEK 3: LOVE

Opening Question:

When in your life have you felt the most loved by God?

In Matthew 1:23, a prophecy from Isaiah 7:14 is quoted, saying that Jesus would be called Immanuel, which means "God with us."

What does it mean for God to be with us?

What does it mean in your life that God WANTS to be with you?

Read 1 Timothy 1:15-16

Who did Jesus come to save?

What is Paul trying to communicate in v16?

If Jesus can save and use Paul, "the worst of sinners," what can He do in your life, if you are willing?

WEEK 3: LOVE

Opening Question:

When in your life have you felt the most loved by God?

In Matthew 1:23, a prophecy from Isaiah 7:14 is quoted, saying that Jesus would be called Immanuel, which means "God with us."

What does it mean for God to be with us?

What does it mean in your life that God WANTS to be with you?

Read 1 Timothy 1:15-16

Who did Jesus come to save?

What is Paul trying to communicate in v16?

If Jesus can save and use Paul, "the worst of sinners," what can He do in your life, if you are willing?

In Matthew 28:20, Jesus says “And surely I am with you always, even to the very end of the age.” We are promised Jesus’ presence, his power, his protection, and his peace, because in Him, we have our King walking beside us, working with us, seeing us, and intimately involved with us.

How does this affect your faith? Your fear?

Read Ephesians 1:13-14

What has God sealed us with?

What is the function of this seal?

What kind of confidence can we have because of this?

Read Revelation 21:1-5

What is promised to us in v3-4?

What does this verse communicate about restoration?

When you consider the picture that is painted through all of these passages, how do they convey the depth of love that God has for us?

Prayer:

Father, thank you for your love. Thank you for preparing a way for us to be restored to you, for equipping us with your presence and your power, and for your good plan to make all things new. We look forward to that day, and help us draw close to you now. In the name of Jesus, amen.

In Matthew 28:20, Jesus says “And surely I am with you always, even to the very end of the age.” We are promised Jesus’ presence, his power, his protection, and his peace, because in Him, we have our King walking beside us, working with us, seeing us, and intimately involved with us.

How does this affect your faith? Your fear?

Read Ephesians 1:13-14

What has God sealed us with?

What is the function of this seal?

What kind of confidence can we have because of this?

Read Revelation 21:1-5

What is promised to us in v3-4?

What does this verse communicate about restoration?

When you consider the picture that is painted through all of these passages, how do they convey the depth of love that God has for us?

Prayer:

Father, thank you for your love. Thank you for preparing a way for us to be restored to you, for equipping us with your presence and your power, and for your good plan to make all things new. We look forward to that day, and help us draw close to you now. In the name of Jesus, amen.