

WEEK 4:

Growth Group Opener:

Have you ever sold or given something away that you ended up regretting?

Read: Ruth 1-4 on your own.

With your group, read: Ruth 4; Leviticus 25:23-25

In reading of how God set up the law of the kinsman-redeemer, what can we learn about how God saw the land, and his people who lived in it?

How might this shape the way we see the land we now live in?
How could we hold what we own and where we live in a different way?

What had to be true of a kinsman-redeemer in order to redeem a property?

How does Jesus fill the role of a kinsman-redeemer for us?

What prophecy do you see in the blessing the elders of the town spoke over Boaz?

WEEK 4:

Growth Group Opener:

Have you ever sold or given something away that you ended up regretting?

Read: Ruth 1-4 on your own.

With your group, read: Ruth 4; Leviticus 25:23-25

In reading of how God set up the law of the kinsman-redeemer, what can we learn about how God saw the land, and his people who lived in it?

How might this shape the way we see the land we now live in?
How could we hold what we own and where we live in a different way?

What had to be true of a kinsman-redeemer in order to redeem a property?

How does Jesus fill the role of a kinsman-redeemer for us?

What prophecy do you see in the blessing the elders of the town spoke over Boaz?

How did Boaz, again, go above and beyond the requirements in how he treated Ruth?

Read: Matthew 1:1-6

Compare/contrast the genealogy at the end of Ruth 4 with Matthew 1:1-6.
What does Matthew add that the book of Ruth leaves out?

Look up the story of Judah and Tamar, the parents of Perez, who begin the lineage of David in Ruth 4. What is interesting or surprising?

Look up the story of Rahab, the mother of Boaz. What is interesting or surprising?

Added to the story of Ruth and Boaz, what do all these stories about people in the direct lineage of Jesus tell us about God?

Is there anything you feel the Holy Spirit nudging you to look at more closely?

Prayer:

Father, thank you for your goodness, your kindness, and your boundless grace. Lord, you see people and our world so differently than we often do. Grant us your eyes to see the way that you see. Give us hearts that are soft to your vision, and that increasingly match yours. Thank you for accepting each of us into your family, in all of our imperfection, because of Christ. In the name of Jesus, amen.

How did Boaz, again, go above and beyond the requirements in how he treated Ruth?

Read: Matthew 1:1-6

Compare/contrast the genealogy at the end of Ruth 4 with Matthew 1:1-6.
What does Matthew add that the book of Ruth leaves out?

Look up the story of Judah and Tamar, the parents of Perez, who begin the lineage of David in Ruth 4. What is interesting or surprising?

Look up the story of Rahab, the mother of Boaz. What is interesting or surprising?

Added to the story of Ruth and Boaz, what do all these stories about people in the direct lineage of Jesus tell us about God?

Is there anything you feel the Holy Spirit nudging you to look at more closely?

Prayer:

Father, thank you for your goodness, your kindness, and your boundless grace. Lord, you see people and our world so differently than we often do. Grant us your eyes to see the way that you see. Give us hearts that are soft to your vision, and that increasingly match yours. Thank you for accepting each of us into your family, in all of our imperfection, because of Christ. In the name of Jesus, amen.