

WEEK 6:

Growth Group Opener:

How have the things that tempt you changed since you were a child?
Are they different, or have the same temptations matured with you?

Read or recite the Lord's Prayer together as a group.

Read: Matthew 6:13; James 1:13-14; 1 Corinthians 10:12-13

"Lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from the evil one."

In Matthew 6, is Jesus indicating that God is the one who tempts us? Why or why not?

How do the other two passages change how we read this line from the Lord's prayer?

In a world that praises individual strength in a "bring it on" kind of way, how does Matthew 6:13 illustrate the opposite, highlighting our utter dependence on God?

All of the passages above use the same Greek word for temptation, which can also be translated "test." What is the difference between tempting and testing?

How does using "test" change how we might understand all of the passages above?

WEEK 6:

Growth Group Opener:

How have the things that tempt you changed since you were a child?
Are they different, or have the same temptations matured with you?

Read or recite the Lord's Prayer together as a group.

Read: Matthew 6:13; James 1:13-14; 1 Corinthians 10:12-13

"Lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from the evil one."

In Matthew 6, is Jesus indicating that God is the one who tempts us? Why or why not?

How do the other two passages change how we read this line from the Lord's prayer?

In a world that praises individual strength in a "bring it on" kind of way, how does Matthew 6:13 illustrate the opposite, highlighting our utter dependence on God?

All of the passages above use the same Greek word for temptation, which can also be translated "test." What is the difference between tempting and testing?

How does using "test" change how we might understand all of the passages above?

Read Matthew 6:13 using the word temptation, then read it using the word testing.

How does the phrase “but deliver us from the evil one” shift with each way of reading?
How does what God is doing shift with each way of reading?

As we wrap up this series on the Lord’s prayer, what kind of progression might we see in the structure of the prayer as it describes how we are to position ourselves in between God, our Father, and the evil one?

What can we learn about God from these passages?

Is there anything you feel the Holy Spirit nudging you to look at more closely?

Prayer:

Father, thank you for your faithfulness, for your kindness, and your compassion. Thank you for keeping a close eye on each of us so that we are never tempted beyond what we can withstand. Thank you for your grace in always providing an out for us when we face temptations. Help us to have the strength and courage to take the way out that you provide, and we ask that you forgive us when we fail. In the name of Jesus, amen.

This week, find “Matt Maher - Lord, I Need You” on YouTube. Listen as you worship, then pray for the Lord to help you see the way out when you are tempted or tested, and deliver you from the evil one.

Read Matthew 6:13 using the word temptation, then read it using the word testing.

How does the phrase “but deliver us from the evil one” shift with each way of reading?
How does what God is doing shift with each way of reading?

As we wrap up this series on the Lord’s prayer, what kind of progression might we see in the structure of the prayer as it describes how we are to position ourselves in between God, our Father, and the evil one?

What can we learn about God from these passages?

Is there anything you feel the Holy Spirit nudging you to look at more closely?

Prayer:

Father, thank you for your faithfulness, for your kindness, and your compassion. Thank you for keeping a close eye on each of us so that we are never tempted beyond what we can withstand. Thank you for your grace in always providing an out for us when we face temptations. Help us to have the strength and courage to take the way out that you provide, and we ask that you forgive us when we fail. In the name of Jesus, amen.

This week, find “Matt Maher - Lord, I Need You” on YouTube. Listen as you worship, then pray for the Lord to help you see the way out when you are tempted or tested, and deliver you from the evil one.